

ECC License vs SNF/Nursing Home

Arbor Glen carries the following licenses: ALF, LNS, & ECC which is the highest level of licensure.

Resident Services Provided		ARBOR GLEN	NURSING HOME
		ECC	SNF
Assistance with self-administered medication		●	●
Administration of medications including injections and blood glucose testing (license staff only)		●	●
Supervision or assistance with bathing, dressing, grooming, and toileting		●	●
Confined to a bed (bedridden) up to seven days	Bedridden is the inability to sit upright, ambulate, or transfer to a wheelchair even with the assistance of one or more persons.	●	●
Confined to a bed (bedridden) up to fourteen days		●	●
Confined to a bed (bedridden) over fourteen days		*	●
End-of-life care for those terminally ill		*	●
Ongoing treatment for Stage 2 pressure ulcers		●	●
Routine emptying of urinary catheter and/or colostomy bags		●	●
Professional nursing supervision		●	●
Professional nursing services		●	✍️
Changing of catheters		●	●
Wound care (such as routine dressings)		●	●
Assistance with physician-prescribed TED hoses		●	●
Changing of colostomy bags		●	●
Administration of oxygen		●	●
Total help with bathing, dressing, grooming, and toileting		●	●
Harmful to themselves or others			●
Flight or elopement risk			●

Abbreviations & Symbol Key

ALF= Assisted Living Facility	*= Can be provided through interdisciplinary plan with local Hospice
LNS= Limited Nursing Service	✍️= The following professional services can ONLY be provided in a nursing home: oral or nasal nasopharyngeal suctioning, nasal gastric tube feeding, monitoring of blood gases, and intermitten positive pressure therapy.
ECC= Extended Congregate Care
SNF= Skilled Nursing Facility

For more information, or to make an appointment for a tour
call (239) 598-2929

ARBOR GLEN
AT ARBOR TRACE